Good afternoon allied Managers,

I wanted to let everyone know that Evan Sandler and his team from Flock Safety will be attending next week's managers' meeting and doing a presentation.

I wanted to give everyone plenty of time for planning, in the event you cannot make the meeting but want someone else from your agency to attend the presentation in your stead.

Next week, I will circulate a headcount email, as well as resend the evite with the updated roster and location: Dave's Place (inside the Village Inn) at 3955 Apollo Way (it's right across the way from the old Coffee Stop location).

I have cc'd Evan and crew in this email if you wish to reach out him directly: (Evan Sandler, Major Account Executive, 949-355-2100)

Stay safe and healthy,

Jeff
